UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

Re: The Travelers Indemnity Co. v. Modern Industries, Inc, et al.
No. 07-CV-4032(NRB)

Dear Judge Buchwald:

This firm represents defendant Alla Krasner in the above-referenced action.

This case involves plaintiff's attempt to recovery monies paid under a surety agreement from Ms. Krasner and her soon-to-be ex-husband, Ronen Kosokhar, who were purported to be guarantors under the agreement. As Your Honor may recall, during our initial status conference on September 10, 2007, defense counsel advised the Court and plaintiff's counsel that we had no access to any of the underlying documentation that form the basis for plaintiff's claim, at which point plaintiff's counsel agreed to supply those materials to us promptly, with the goal of determining if the matter could be settled. Based on this discussion, the Court scheduled another status conference for October 30.

We did not hear from plaintiff's counsel again until October 17, when he sent an e-mail indicating that the materials necessary for the parties to hold settlement negotiations would be forwarded to us shortly. Those materials finally arrived on October 23, although not everything that was promised was included in the package. I have since requested the missing information from plaintiff's counsel.

In light of the foregoing, we respectfully submit that the Court may wish to adjourn the October 30 conference for another 30 days to enable defense counsel to evaluate the materials

Endorsement
The conference is adjourned until November 20, 2007 at 3:30 p.m.

and engage in settlement negotiations with plaintiff's counsel. Needless to say, absent an Order from the Court, we intend to appear before Your Honor at the scheduled time on October 30.

If the Court requires any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Respectfully submitted,
